BARN HUNT is an exciting sport where dogs get to use their natural instinct to “hunt” rats. Your dog does not have to be a terrier to play – Barn Hunt is open to all breeds and it’s a recognized sport by a few organizations! A maze of straw bales is set up and there are PVC tubes hidden throughout the course – some with live rats, some with scented bedding, and some empty. To put it simply, the aim of the game is for the dog to hunt through the straw to find all the live rat tubes. But don’t worry – the rats aren’t harmed in Barn Hunt! There are strict rules in place to keep the rats safe, and they live as pets in their off time. Most willingly climb into the tubes to work and enjoy teasing the dogs! The Barn Hunt competitions are being held in another area at the Matrix Facility on during and after the HPASC Events. If you are interested to learn more or to pre-enter the Barn Hunt events, please contact Rocky Mountain Ratters - - www.RockyMountainRatters.com or call 720-523-DOGS (3647).
